From Fr. Bill

Our school will be holding an open house on Sunday, January 27th. Our Children's Choir will be singing at the 7:30am, 9am and 11am masses that morning. (Music is located below.) Please do encourage family and friends to meet our students, parents, teachers over donuts and perhaps take a tour of our Catholic school. I hope you take time for this as well.

Saint John Bosco used to say that a school without music was like a body without a soul. For him music gave young people a way to uplift others, to entertain, to pray together and to develop talents and skills which they could carry with them throughout their lives. He also noticed that among the young people he worked with... that those who were involved in music and theater... seemed less likely to get in trouble with the law and seemed better prepared to be able to work well with others and get a good job.

I know and have seen the studies which highlight the impact that involvement in music, band and choir has on children successfully negotiating their teenage years. Learning to work together as a group, listening, learning to recognize and appreciate others diverse gifts and talents... developing leadership, growing in confidence, learning how and when to shine (and how and when to support and allow others to shine) and how to assist others in developing their skills.

Some of the young people I have worked with (I began around 1978) have continued to be involved in their parishes sharing their gift of music far beyond what I was able to teach them. God brought them and I helped point them in God's direction. My heart fills with joy when I see and hear what God continues to do through them. (Facebook is good for something.) I pray that the good work begun in our children at St. Jerome will continue to bear fruit for the Lord.

OFFERTORY: Build A Family

by Ed Bolduc ©1999, All rights reserved. Used With Permission.

Different hearts, different lives, one in the name of God.
Different hurts, different needs, one goal, one mission,
Building the Kingdom of God.

May we be holy in our lives.
May we shine brightly on our way.
And may we build a family of love
With the grace of God in us.

O Saint Jerome, pray for us, Your family of love.

My God And My All by Fr. Bill ©2015, All rights reserved. Used With Permission.

My God and my all, how I long to love you,
And give you my heart, and give you my soul.
My God and my all, how I long to love you,
And give you my heart, and give you my soul.

1. My God, I am sorry for all my sins with all my heart,
When I choose evil and fail to do good,
I sin against you whom I should most love.
2. I firmly intend with the help of your grace
To do penance and to amend my life:
To avoid whatever leads me to sin.

COMMUNION: Sanctuary and We Are One Body

RECESSONAL: Go Make A Difference #499

I worry about what young people are being taught "in the world." Times have changed. Thank God for some of these developments. But not all change is good. Back in the 1950's and 60's even public schools had prayer, Christian values, and the Ten Commandments as the background of school life. 65% of Catholics who had children in Religious Education (CCD) in those days regularly attended church services. (75% for Catholics who had children in Catholic Schools.) In today's culture I guess we shouldn't be surprised that national surveys today say only 2% of Catholics who have children in Religious Education regularly attend church services. (29% for Catholics who have children in Catholic Schools.)

Catholic Schools do help shape lives. As a proud graduate and as a teacher of 24 years I know this. Catholic schools promote the formation of the whole person... including the spiritual and moral. Students are trained to live knowingly as children of God. Our students live in an atmosphere filled with encounters with Christ and the Spirit of Gospel love. Our children's consciences are formed in a way that they know they are called to be living witnesses of God's love by the way they act. They learn to recognize what is good (discernment) and how to integrate what is good into their daily lives.

Graduates of Catholic elementary schools are more than six times as likely to regularly attend mass. They are twice as likely to consider vocations to the priesthood and religious life. They are 42% more likely to graduate from high school and 250% more likely to graduate from college.

Every child has a right to a great education. St. Jerome is a great school, a home away from home and a place where God's family is visibly present. If you have a child or grandchild who might benefit from our school, speak to me and let's see what we can do to make it happen.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support of our young people in getting a great education.
