From Fr. Bill

In the movie, The Sixth Sense, a young boy explains he talks to dead people. We Catholics know we are different; we talk to the living.... to those alive in Christ. I speak to my dad (RIP) at least once a month... especially when I am reminded of him through family, music or sports. We believe in the Communion of Saints. In the month of the Holy Souls make some time to remember, to talk with them, to ask them to pray for people and things which we know they are concerned about and love. The bonds of love do not end with death and our God is a God of the living. Stay in touch but make time to listen... their voice of truth can resound in heart and mind.

Regarding purgatory and All Souls Day: A bride on her wedding day wants her appearance to be as beautiful as she can be. I have participated in a wedding where a bride delayed the start of the service by over twenty minutes as she and her maid of honor applied themselves to repair some sort of wardrobe difficulty. Please note that at her entrance all present knew it was worth the wait. She looked radiant and of course, beautiful.

Imagine you are about to go to a place where everyone knows the truth of you. Every lie, theft, betrayal, deceit... some of which in the busyness of life you may have forgotten and never apologized for, made amends to, or ever properly confessed in sacrament.

The Justice of God blends with the Mercy of God at the "place" we traditionally call Purgatory. I tend to think of purgatory more like a process of purification or getting ready to come into the fullness of God's presence. It is similar to when one comes out of a place of darkness into bright sunlight and having one's eyes hurt as they adjust to the intensity of the light. We are given the opportunity to be aware of our non-mortal offenses and have the offending parts diminished and transformed.

I don't think of those in purgatory as "Poor Souls." St. Catherine of Genoa wrote: "Apart from the happiness of the saints in heaven, I think there is no joy comparable to that of the souls in purgatory." I prefer calling them "Holy Souls." The people there are not in Satan's clutches, but are getting ready for God's loving embrace. I would rejoice to be among there number as I already would know my final destination.

November is the month of the Holy Souls. As the church year comes to a close, we are asked to remember and pray for those who have gone before us and through the Body of Christ have connection with. "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from sins." (Macc. 12:46)

The faithful can also help these holy souls through the Sacrifice of the Mass. The Mass helps both those who participate in this world and those who are not yet fully in God's presence because the Mass is so powerful in itself and because the faithful have coupled their sacrifice (this offering) with the Sublime Sacrifice. That these sacrifices are helpful is shown to us in the book of Maccabees (the book which established the feast of Hanukkah) where Judas Maccabee had his soldiers send drachmas to Jerusalem to offer up a sacrifice for the soldiers who had fallen in battle.

The practice of remembering the departed at the altar was widespread already in the early Church. St. Monica, to give one example, was familiar with it. When she lay on her deathbed at Ostia, she made a request of her son, Augustine: "Bury my body wherever you please. Let that not be your concern. Only one thing I beg of you: at the Lord's altar, wherever you may be, remember me."

Do make time to remember those who have touched your life. Make time to pray with them in your heart. Do make time to pray for those forgotten... because God hasn't forgotten them and neither should we. They too are our sisters and brothers.

ON FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8TH AT 11AM WE WILL BE HAVING OUR ANNUAL MASS OF REMEMBRANCE. Those of our parish who have died in the past year will be remembered and given the support of our prayers. Of course, ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2ND WE WILL BE HAVING OUR ALL SOULS DAY MASS AT 8AM. We also have our monthly novena for the dead: one mass, each day of November, will be said for those who have been enrolled in this group of loved ones by their family and friends. ENVELOPES FOR THE ALL SOULS NOVENA ARE AVAILABLE IN THE CHURCH AND THE PARISH OFFICE.

Please don't forget that Friday, November 1st is All Saints Day. Our masses on this Holy Day of Obligation will be at 8am (with our School Choir Singing), Noon and 7pm.

Friday, November 1, 2019, is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses will be at 8am, Noon and 7pm.
First Friday Adoration will immediately follow the 8:00am Mass only until 10:00am
