From Fr. Bill

We had our annual priests meeting with the Archbishop. Usually held at the Cathedral, this year it was online... as too many things seem to be. Our eight new priests were introduced. Our priests who died this year were remembered and prayed for. The Archbishop thanked the priests who have been creative and able to continue to be good shepherds giving prayerful and sacramental opportunities for the faithful. He also expressed financial concerns for catholic schools and parishes. With our buildings closed and services restricted attendance and participation is likely to remain lower than usual. The Archbishop is grateful for those Catholics who have continued to support the church in these difficult times and specifically noted those who are helping Catholic children get the type of education they deserve and need.

The Archbishop expressed the desire for churches and schools to be "safely" opened in the near future. (He did not give any expectation regarding a date.) Covid should be kept in mind, but people's mental health, social needs and the damage being inflicted upon school aged children (depression, anxiety, suicide, weight gain) needs to be included in decision making. Contacting people in positions of leadership in the city and county of Los Angeles regarding opening schools was specifically mentioned.

The keynote talk was excellent, but I will be speaking about that next weekend. I pass on to you a prayer we used that I had not encountered before: St. Therese's Prayer for Priests.

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; for your unfaithful and tepid priests; for your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for your tempted priests; for your lonely and desolate priests; for your young priests; for your dying priests; for the souls of your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me: the priest who baptized me; the priests who've absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I've assisted and who've given me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who've taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way, especially (name).

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen.

The Archangels (Rafael, Gabriel and Michael) were honored on September 29th. They are great agents to have in your life. St. Rafael (God heals) is a great patron when facing surgery, working with the sick and especially when dealing with a difficult or uncooperative people. St. Gabriel (God is my strength) is a great helper when going through difficult times and assists us in trusting that God will bring us through.

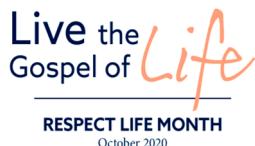

St. Michael (Who is like God?) is an essential ally in keeping God first in our life. The devil loves to distract, mislead, or trip up those seeking to follow the Lord. St. Michael helps us to remember who we are and how much we truly need to be with God. Those in authority especially need his assistance as power tends to blind us as by our nature we tend to allow our desires to over-rule God's will.

October is RESPECT LIFE MONTH and also the month of the Holy Rosary. God knows America needs prayer. From womb to the tomb we are to support God's gift of Life.

Next Saturday, October 10th immediately following the 8am mass and beginning of adoration we will begin praying for ourselves, our country and the world. I spent all those years praying the Rosary for the conversion of Russia and China and world peace. Too bad that I presumed America did not need conversion which is now so blatantly obvious. We need Jesus so much and our Blessed Mother is a great role model and guide to her Son, "Do whatever He tells you to do." The Rosary and Litany of Our Blessed Mother will be a part of our program of prayer which should be finishing around 10am. You need not be Catholic to attend. Let us unite in prayer for our country which so much needs Christ's peace and healing.

By the way, at our September Parish Finance Council Meeting one of our members suggested that I remind people that 100% of all monies donated to the SCHOOL FUND, the BUILDING FUND and the CHURCH ENHANCEMENT FUND remain here at St. Jerome's.... while general donations and the basket get 10% taken by the archdiocese for its operations. Another member reminded me of a previous pastor who got in trouble for all of the donations suddenly shifting to the BUILDING FUND. I AM NOT SUGGESTING THIS as we need general donations for salaries, insurance, utilities, and others things needed to continue operations BUT please each month do use your yellow school envelop and the building fund envelop (or the online equivalent). Thank you for your ongoing support.

Thank You! We now have nine children receiving assistance with tuition for their St. Jerome School education. Thank you parishioners who have stepped up to help these little ones. However, we have a few more to go! We still have 2 children in need of $150 per month ($1,500 for the year) and 10 children in need of $100 per month ($1,000 for the year). Please help our children and their families who do sacrifice much to give ~~their~~ OUR CHILDREN the education they need and deserve. Thank you for prayerfully considering this helping our children. They are our children and our future. Please help them get the Catholic education these children truly need and deserve. Thank you.

Today is Respect Life Sunday!
As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend and protect those who are most vulnerable, from beginning to its end, and at every point in between. Join Catholics nationwide in celebrating Respect Life Month! respectlife.org/celebrate

Today on the feast of Saint Francis of Assisi the Season of Creation ends.

Please always remind yourselves to be God's stewards of this world.

This fall on Tuesdays at 7:30pm via Zoom web conferencing, is a study from the Old Testament that focus on the roles of Women in salvation history.

These women's stories are remarkable and worthy of attention. The women of this study can be bold and decisive, also meek and faithful, but they are always compelled to act in ways that bring about change. God's saving deeds often came through the mind and will of amazing women using limited resources.

All are welcome. No experience necessary.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Worship Aid

10/4/2020

GATHER YOUR PEOPLE – Bob Hurd

Gather your people, O Lord.
Gather your people, O Lord.
One bread, one body, one spirit of love,
Gather your people, O Lord.

1. Draw us forth to the table of life:
brothers and sisters,
each of us called to walk in your light.
2. We are parts of the body of Christ,
needing each other,
each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

THIS IS THE DAY – Bobby Fisher

This is the day! This is the day!
This is the day that the Lord has made!
Let us rejoice! Let us rejoice!
Let us rejoice and be glad!

Text: Psalm 118:24, 1–2, 16–17, 22–23. Refrain text © 1969, 1981, ICEL. All rights reserved. Used with permission.

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah (Is 7: 1–7)

Let me now sing of my friend, my friend's song concerning his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside; he spaded it, cleared it of stones, and planted the choicest vines; within it he built a watchtower, and hewed out a wine press. Then he looked for the crop of grapes, but what it yielded was wild grapes. Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard: What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done? Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes? Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard: take away its hedge, give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin: it shall not be pruned or hoed, but overgrown with thorns and briars; I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM -- Ps 80 -- Michel Guimont

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

A vine from Egypt you transplanted;
you drove away the nations and planted it.
It put forth its foliage to the Sea,
its shoots as far as the River. R/

Why have you broken down its walls,
so that every passer-by plucks its fruit,
The boar from the forest lays it waste,
and the beasts of the field feed upon it? R/

Once again, O LORD of hosts,
look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine,
and protect what your right hand has planted
the son of man whom you yourself made strong. R/

Then we will no more withdraw from you;
give us new life, and we will call upon your name.
O LORD, God of hosts, restore us;
if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved. R/

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians (Phil 4: 6-9)

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse (Jn 15:16)

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord,
to go and bear fruit that will remain.

A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew (Mt. 21:33-43)

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?"

They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times."

Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes?"

Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

PRAYER OF ST FRANCIS – Sebastian Temple

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.
2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness only light,
And where there's sadness ever joy.

3. O Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled, as to console,
To be understood, as to understand,
To be loved as to love with all my soul.
4. Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving of ourselves that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Woman or man, no more
2. Many the gifts, Many the works,
One in the Lord, Of all.

DIGNITY BEYOND THE DEBTATE 2020

What does it mean to form my conscience?

Forming Conscience for Faithful Citizenship is the teaching document of the Catholic Bishops of the U.S. It provides guidance for all who seek to exercise their rights and duties as citizens.

It's important to consider how our faith can help us form good consciences through some of these steps:

- Begin by being open to the truth and what is right.
- Study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.

- Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.

- Pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience to hear God's voice in your life.
